To increase general awareness and knowledge, including among children, of children rights and in particular, but not limited to, the right to be heard and express their voices on issues that matter to them. Priority 2. To design, test, establish and evaluate mechanisms of child participation at local level. Priority 3. To assess national legislative and policy frameworks for child participation, with a view to designing and implementing tools to promote child participation at national level. Description of the activities: Under the first priority, activities shall include: -public campaigns promoting children's rights in accordance with the United Nations Convention on the rights of the child, and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights; -trainings and the production of training material for professionals as well as child friendly material on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child; -activities with children to increase their knowledge on their rights and what their rights mean in the European Union context. For all the above, projects can aim at reaching children, parents, families, teachers, professionals who work in contact with children and youth, media, politicians and decision makers. Activities can take place in, inter alia, schools, youth clubs, community centres, child care facilities, health care facilities, reception facilities, the justice system, etc. Proposals are encouraged to use, disseminate and build on already existing materials promoting children's rights. Under the second priority, activities shall include : -the design, implementation and evaluation of child participation mechanisms at local level, for example, children city councils, children advisory boards, and consultations with children; -peer learning and peer support among local authorities from the same or a different country, aimed at fostering exchange of knowledge and good practices on how to embed child participation in local decision-making processes. Under this second priority, it is strongly encouraged to involve a public authority to actively participate in the projects. This will be assessed under the award criterion (b) quality of the proposed action. Under the third priority, activities shall include: -mapping of existing national legislation and practice to assess how child participation is embedded in national frameworks; -development of strategies and plans to foster child participation at national level, as well as of	The EU grant requested cannot be lower than EUR 75 000. To prevent and combat racism, xenophobia and other forms of intolerance Priority 2. To monitor, prevent and counter hate speech online Priority 3. Restricted to public authorities: to improve responses to racism, xenophobia and other forms of intolerance at national, regional and local level Description of the activities: Whereas numerous activities are listed below, it is not requested to include all of them in a single proposal. Proposals with a strong focus and implementing a limited type or number of activities are very much valued. Activities specifically targeting the objectives of preventing and fighting Antisemitism and of tackling racism and discrimination against Muslims are of particular interest. Priority 1. To prevent and combat racism, xenophobia and other forms of intolerance. Activities shall consist of: mutual learning and exchanges of good practices; coalition building, capacity building and training; community and victims' empowerment and support; dissemination and awareness raising initiatives; studies and analytical activities. In particular, in stepping up the prevention and the fight against Antisemitism, activities shall consist of: measures increasing the knowledge about Jewish life in the past and today; measures that support remembrance of the Shoah; data collection of antisemitic incidents; awareness raising of Antisemitism as a societal threat. Priority 2. To monitor, prevent and counter hate speech online. Activities shall consist of: awareness raising, multi-stakeholder actions and campaigns; promotion of digital skills and critical thinking, and education; advanced data gathering, analysis of trends, connections, and triggers of online hatred. Priority 3. Restricted to public authorities (as main applicants) : to improve public authorities' responses to racism, xenophobia and other forms of intolerance at national, regional and local level. Activities shall consist of: trainings addressed to law enforcement (police, prosecutors or judges) in order to enhance their capacity to implement the legal framework on hate speech and hate crime on the ground; designing and implementing strategies or plans of action; development of concrete tools, systems or practices in order to improve the systems of recording or data collection of instances of hate speech and hate crime at national, regional or local level; initiatives aimed to ensure the uptake, use and sustainability of tools and training material available in the area of hate crime and hate speech; mutual learning and exchange of good practices between national,	The indicative maximum amount earmarked for the co-financing of projects under this call for proposals is estimated at EUR 7 930 000: P1 – EUR 4 930 000; P2 – EUR 2 000 000; P3 – EUR 1 000 000; For an idea of the size of a grant awarded under previous calls, please refer to the publication of project abstracts of these calls. The Commission reserves the right not to distribute all the funds available. The EU grant may not exceed 80% of the eligible costs.	Deadline: 29 April 2020 17:00:00 Brussels time https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/portal/screen/opportunities/topic-details/rec-rrac-raci-ag-2020;freeTextSearchKeyword=;typeCodes=1;statusCodes=31094502;programDivisionCode=null;focusAreaCode=null;crossCuttingPriorityCode=null;callCode=Default;sortBy=asc;onlyTenders=false;topicListKey=topicSearchTab;ePageState
